work for the Norwich Electric com

Local Jettings

Ar. and Mrs. William E. Rochejeau, fr. of High street, left Friday morning for Boston, where they will spend the week-end with relatives.

Atchez Molleur and family have moved to Taffville, where they resided before coming here.

Frank Atwood of Hartford was a business caller in town Friday.

There is an unclaimed letter at the Baltic post office for Mrs. H. Dion.

PUTNAM

l'estimony in Cortti's Will Case Heard by Judge Reed-Mrs. Lloyd G. Stone's Diverce Petition Dismissed-

Charge of Theft of Railroad Property Not Sustained-Commissioners Issue

In the superior court for Windham county at Friday's session, Judge Joel H. Reed presiding, the Mrs. O. Louise Harmon, Plymouth, Mass., appeal from probate, concerning the will of the late Mrs. Celinda Corttis Thompson, was resumed.

Mrs, Harmon, granddaughter of the

Mrs. Harmon, granddaughter of the testatrix, was again called to the witness stand and told more of conversations with her grandmother and of letters written by her which she believed indicated a state of feeble mind on the part of Mrs. Corttis. Mrs. Harmon was cross examined at length of Mr. Searls.

County Commissioner Frank O. Davis of Pomfret testified that he had written an insurance policy for Mrs. Corttis when she came here to live in 1903, and at that time he noticed that she was in a geeble state of mind and could not remember much about busi-could not remember much about busi-ness transactions she had with him. She paid him, for instance, for the policy and afterwards insisted en paying him again. He delivered the policy to her, but several times there-

George Brennan of High street is orking in Hanover. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rochejeau,

WOMEN'S CASE IN WESTERLY COURT

Mothers Take Up Children's Quarrel and One is Fined For Assault-Appeal Taken-Jurors Summoned For November Term-Sum of $78 Stolen from Charles E. Smith's House-Tea For Miss Atwood.

The spectators benches in the Third that church and Rev. Lyman G. Hordistrict court room were filled Friday ton of Grace Methodist church, will by men and women interested in the exchange pulpits Sunday morning.

Assault case of Mrs. Angelo Cappucies Mrs. Alice Tetlow, who has been in against Mrs. Joseph Guarino, in which it was charged that the defendant threw several panes of window glass at plaintiff. Mrs. Cappucio received a deep out over the left eye and her left hand was severely cut. The case was tried before Judge liver H. Williams. Town Solleitor Harry R. Agand mas tried before Judge nver H. whitehead the supposed for the prosecution and John J. Dunn for the defendant, There was a large array of witnesses and as many had but scant knowledge of the lenglish language the testimony was through Interpreter Charles Ruist.

The assault and battery was an outgrowth of a feud that existed between which originated in a row the women which originated in a row over their children and which could have been better adjusted if left to the children. The case occupied the effention of the court for four hours. Judge Williams found Mrs. Guarino ruity as charged and imposed a fine of $50 and costs. Notice of appeal to the superior court for Washington county was given and Mrs. Guarino furnished a bond of $250 for appear-

Courtland Chase entered suit against Courtland Chase entered suit against Otis Brown to recover damages for personal injuries and for the loss of property when a team owned and driven by plaintiff was struck by an automobile driven by Otis Brown. The mishap occurred on the Post road a few months since. Mr. Chase seeks to recover on two counts, claiming damages of $500 in each count.

Angelo Rose was arraigned on the charge of defacine a building and charge of defacing a building and pleaded guilty. After a dispute in the saloon of Guiseppi Turano the accused outside and hurled five rocks through the windows. He was arrested by Policemen West and Chase. Judge Williams imposed a fine of $25

Town Sergeant Herbert P. Clark has summoned these Westerly jurors to the November term of the superior court for Washington county, which convenes at Kingston Monday: George F. Champlin, Ernest Coon, R. Court Burdick, Joseph H. Dovey, William R. Burdick, grand jury; Herbert T. Kenyon, Henry T. Bromley, Robert Duff,
Frank J. Cahoon, Edward H. Buffum, Sidney E. Chapman, Joseph E. Baggs, petit jury. The grand jury will meet petit jury. Monday ar and the petit jury on Wed-

Local Laconice.

Richard Crowther, of Lancaster, N. H., formerly of Westerly, is here visiting relatives. An addition is being built to the foundry of the plant of the C. B. Cottrell & Sons company.

Rev. Charles H. Dickenson, D. D. will preach Sunday morning and eve-ning in the Congregational church. Richard Starr of New London, a former missionary to Africa, will conduct the Sunday evening service at the People's Mission.

William H. Palmer of Voluntown has purchased from Phebe H. G. Strachan the property on the Hopkinton road near Fraser's bridge.

Steamship Cretic, from Genoa for Baston, is due to arrive next Monday. Miss Marie Zangrandi of Westerly, is a massenger on the Cretic.

Rev. Charles F. Eldredge, of Nian-Conn., will supply the pulpit of First Baptist church in Westerly, inday morning and evening,

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always hears the Signature of Chart Willithm. Always hears the

PATENTS

Pintect your ideas. Handsoms 60page Guide Book Free. HARRY E. BACK, Attorney-at-Law Windham County Savings Bank Bldg. Danielson, Conn.

LEGAL NOTICES.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HELD Norwich, within and for the District of Norwich, on the 12th day of Novem-ber, A. D. 1914.

Estate of Margaret Maria Hedge, late f. Norwich, in sal. Latrict, deceased. The Executrix exhibited her adminstration account with said estate to the Court for allowance; it is there-

Ordered, That the 18th day of November, A. D. 1914, at 11 o'clock in the forencen, at the Probate Court Room in the City of Norwich, in said District, by and the same is, appointed for hearing the same, and the said Executrix is directed to give notice thereof by publishing this order once in some howspaper having a circulation in said District, at least three days prior to the date of said hearing, and make return to the Court.

the Court.

The Court.

NELSON, J. AYLING, Judge.

The above and foregoing is a true thy of record.

Actest: Fannas C. Church,

Clerk.

AT A COURT OF PROBATE HOLDEN at Canterbury, within and for the Dis-trict of Canterbury, on the 11th day of Notember, A. D. 1914.

Present—A. HALE BENNETT, Judge.
On motion of Morgie Docritinger, No.
7 Seventy-third street, Brooklyn, N. Y.,
Executrix on —a tesiate estate of Roberts Docritinger, late of Brooklyn, N. Y., Jednaco

This Court doth decree that six tonths be anowed and limited for the reditors of said estate to exhibit their as against the same to the Execudirects that public notice be

A. HALE BENNETT.
Judge.

Mrs. Alice Tetlow, who has been in Westerly for several months, the guest of her sister, Mrs. John G. Dutton, returned Friday to her home in Fall

Miss Edith Dodge gave a reception and tea at her home in Elm street, Friday afternoon, in honor of Miss Annie Atwood of Stonington, fiancee of her brother, Frank F. Dodge. The eastbound Federal express, which has been keeping close to schedule time for several months was one hour and fifty minutes late in arrival at Westerly Friday morning,

While Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith were away from their home, 35 Clark street, Thursday evening, a sneak thief entered the house and stole $78. Nothing else was taken. Indications are that the trick was not turned by a

Under the direction of the Young People's society, Mrs. Joseph L. Pea-cock will speak in Caivary Baptist church, Sunday evening on the sub-ject, In the Red Man's Land, illustrated with pictures of Indians and Delegations from the Westerly and Pawcatuck fire departments will be guests of the Wakefield Fire company tonight, at Wakefield. The members of the Watchemoket company of East Providence will be present also

At the meeting of the Westerly His-torical society, Charles P. Cottrell, David Franklin Stillman, Mrs. Charles Stewart and Miss Fanny D. Holmes were elected to membership. Resolu-tions were adopted upon the death of Helen H. A. Miner and Howard Y.

BALTIC

oung Ladies of Temperance Auxiliary Hold Successful Marvest Social and Entertainment-Big Game With Plainfield Today.

A very successful Harvest entertainment and social was held in Sprague hall Friday evening under the auspices of St. Teresa's auxiliary of St. Mary's T. A. B. society. Two playlets were cleverly staged by members of the auxiliary, and the coetumes worn caused much amusement. Wilfred J. Laforge pleased with his monologues. The cast of the first playlet, entitled The Sniggles Family, was as follows: Widow Sniggles. Fidelis Donahoe; daughters, S'manthy Ann. Agnes Beauregaid; Jerushy, Mabel Birracree; Angelica Utopia Regina, Renelda Hines; Silvicta Lorena, Alma Goebell; Angina Pectoris, Loretta Sullivan; Electoria Cassandra, Margaret Miley; Mehitabel, Ethel Brown: Jemina, Una Donahoe.

The following composed the cast for Mrs. Black's Pink Tea: Mrs. Black, Alma Gobell; Mrs. White, Albina Harrell; Pansy Black, Loretta Sullivan; Gal. Alma Gobell; Mrs. White, Albina Harrell; Pansy Black, Loretta Sulivan; Saratoga Washington, Madeline Gallagher; Mrs. Rochester Lincoln, Teresa Sulivan; Mrs. Redd, Ethel Brown; Mrs. Blue, Gertrude Hines; Mrs. Green, Margaret Miley; Mrs. Brown, Margaret Lilley; Mrs. Yellow, Elicen Brown.

Following the entertalmment there was dancing, for which Miss N. V. Milner's orchestra furnished music. The hall was prettily decorated with colored bunting, flags and autumn leaves. Miss Anna T. Donahoe was the

ves. Miss Anna T. Donahoe was the accompanist for the evening. The committee in charge of the affair was Misses F. G. Donahoe, A. T. Donahoe, Albina Harrell, Loretta Sullivan, Madeline Gallagher, Ethel Brown and Mabel Birracree.

A great deal of interest is centered A great deal of interest is centered in the same to be played between Ealtic and Plainfield soccer teams at Plainfield this afternoon, Baltic has given herself a shake-up and got busy with practicing and plans to put special energy into today's game. The team has been arranged as follows for today: Goal, A. Pennington: fullbacks, Afbert Cullen, William Gariich; halfbacks, Al, Culpin, William Thompson and Charles Garrett (Capt.): forson and Charles Garrett (Capt.); for-wards, James Cullen, Joseph Simon-eau, S. Poole, Thomas Houghton, William Hill. A number of enthusiasts will probably accompany the team, George Rocheleau has started to town school committee.

ful workman.

CUT BY FLYING GLASS.

at Wauregan,

BELGIANS WINNING.

School Basketball League.

FELL 30 FEET.

Pole at Central Village.

Charles Myers of North Main street

DANIELSON

J. Arthur Atwood Gives 1,000 Yards of Bandaging to Red Cross-Williamsville School to Open-Lineman Charles Myers Falls 30 Feet-Wind Blows in Transom, Injuring Miss Maud Houck and Pupils.

Mrs. W. D. Swaffield is with relatives in Maiden for the week end.

Miss Dorothy Adams will be leader of the Epworth league meeting at the Methodist church Sunday.

George O, Thomas, recently operated on for appendicitis in a Hartford hos-pital, is reported as progressing favor-Rev. J. Sherman Gove of Wauregan will preach at the Congregational with preach at the congregational church here Sunday morning.

Mrs. Percy Waller of Skaneateles, N.
Y., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Jacobs, has gone to New York.

State police have had their attention called to the many violations here of the so-called lantern law.

The Law's Delay, Prisoners awaiting trial on criminal charges must remain at Brooklyn jail until the March term, it is said.

Sheriff John O. Fox of Putnam is appreciative of the fine support he re-J. Arthur Atwood's Generosity,

J. Arthur Atwood of Wauregan has given more than 1,000 yards of bandaging through a Brooklyn organiza-tion for the American Red Cross so-

The turkey supper given at the Eap-tist parsonage this week resulted in adding $37 to the church funds. Mr. and Mrs. William M. Isaacs have closed their summer home at Brooklyn and returned to New York.

Postmaster C. A. Potter has not as yet received announcements as to the names of the successful candidates for appointment as letter carriers and sub-stitute carrier here. Saloons Closed Up.

It is noted with much satisfaction here that those who had licenses last year have closed up their places. The liquor dealers are not trifling with fire this year. At Dayville the Adams Express building demolfshed by a freight car is being rebuilt out of range of further bembardment of that kind. Twice evi-dently is plenty. Henry Hall of the Pentecostal Collegiate institute at North Scituate, R. I., is to speak at the Pentecostal church here Sunday evening, relating his ex-periences while in the United States army and navy.

Vote by Check List Probable. Another great big town meeting is forecasted for Monday, Nov. 23. There will be full and free discussion of the tax matter and it is probable that a vote by check list will be asked for when fixing the tax rate, be that rate 12 mills or more.

Clouds of dust forced many citizens to eat at least a share of their peck of to eat at least a share of their peck of dirt Friday. The season for watering the streets closed with the coming of November. As nature has not seen fit to take up the job, the dirt and wind are making the most of their oppor-

Renomination Favored. Indications are that County Commissioner E. H. Hall of North Windham will have strong support as a candidate to succeed himself. It is argued that as a complete board is to be nom-inated one commissioner of experience should remain. As Mr. Hall is the only republican on the board at present, and the new commission is to be made up entirely of men of that political faith, he seems in line to get his party's support.

rivan of this order by advertising in a newspaper having a circulation in said instruct, and by posting a copy thereof in the public signpost in said Town of landerbury, nearest the place where the deceased owned real estate.

(Sertified from Ricord.

A HALES BENNAMED TO SERVICE STATES IN the Evening.

It is announced that the new school

THE BROOKLYN SAVINGS BANK

East Brooklyn (Danielson), Conn.

STATEMENT, OCTOBER-3,-1914

Deposits 1,735,743.71 Surplus and Profits and Profits and Profits and Profits

President, J. ARTHUR ATWOOD Vice-President, WM. H. BURNHAM Secretaryland Treespren CLARENCE A. POTTER

Big Game With Plainfield

peared at his office and told hhim she had found the policy at her home.

Charles W. Buggington of Foster, R. I., said he had lived in the home of Mrs. Cortits for 25 years. He expressed the opinion that she had been growing feeble minded for 10 to 12 years before her death.

He told of coming to Putnam for a visit with her in 1911. He met her on the street, but she did not know him, he said, and did not until he had spent from 10 to 15 minutes trying to spent from 10 to 15 minutes trying to make her remember who he was. Following Mr. Buddington's testinony there was a conference between the court and counsel, the jury being required to retire meanwhile, over the ropriety of allowing another witness building at Williamsville will be open o testify.

After recess the case was resumed and occupied the remainder of the aftfor inspection of the public Monday afternoon from 1.80 to 3.30, and that at the Congregational church in the ernoon.

Mrs. Lloyd G. Stone's Petition Dismissed

village at 7 in the evening exercises in commemoration of the event are to be held. The programme will be During the noon recess Judge Rreed opened with an organ and violin duet by Miss Bertha Pigeon and Beatrice Cook. The invocation will be by Rev. heard the uncontested divorce case of Natalie May Stone of East Killingly vs. Lloyd G. Stone of the same place. Cook. The invocation will be by Nov. Clarence H. Barber. The address of welcome will be given by Miss Beatrice Cook. The programme includes a song, Bob White, by the pupils of the She charged cruel treatment and adultery. The case was dismissed by Judge Reed after hearing the tes-Judge Reed after hearing the testimony. The couple were married at Mount Vernon, N. H., March 28, 1906. Afterwards they lived in Providence, North Scituate and other places. Mrs. Stone told that her husband slapped her face after trivial family disturbances and on other occasions had thrown a fishpole and an alarm clock of her Aletter in which reference. song, Bob White, by the pupils of the first room and a question song by the pupils of the second room. John Boys will contribute a number to the programme and Miss Rosealma Flagg will sing a Slumber Song. Songs, choruses and recitations by the pupils are included in the exercises, a cornet solo by Charles Daggett and a drama entitled. Three Bears by the pupils of the at her. A letter in which reference was made to some of his actions by by Charles Daggett and a drama enti-tled Three Bears by the pupils of the first room. It is expected that there will be brief addresses by members of the town school committee and mem-bers of the building committee. The Mr. Stone was given to the court read by Attorney A. G. Bill of Da son, counsel for the plaintiff. Se man Harley S. Place of East Killingly was a witness for Mrs. Stone. exercises will close with the singing of America and benediction by Rev. James H. George, Jr., chairman of the

CHARGE NOT SUSTAINED

Lineman Charles Myers Slips from city, was presented on the charge of larceny in connection with the taking lineman in the employ of the Daniel-son and Plainfield Gas and Electric of a number of wrenches, haramers cold chisels and other tools to th company, was severely injured about 2 o'clock Friday afternoon when he fell value of $7.85. He pleaded not guilty and was found not guilty. Agent George Woodward of the New Haven road. about 30 feet from a pole upon which he had climbed in Central Village, about opposite the town hall. Just what happened to him remains uncer-tain, and his own recollection was hazy on the point Friday after he had been who worked up the case, stated that pect will be the had received compliints that tools of God. Sunday school, 12:10; 1. F. had been missed and he found the property in Allen's locker. Employes ship, 7; subject, The Handicapped the road testified that it was the of the road testified that it was the custom to take toels from the tool house and to return them there after using, but they had formerly kept tools in their lockers. It was also statbrought to his home here. He had climbed the pole to pull out some plugs. Whether his grip was loosened by the prevailing gale, his spurs pulled out of the pole, or whether he received an electric shock, remains uncertain, but he took a dead fall and was rendered ed that the tools found in Allen' locker were such as he would use in his work. Allen told the court he unconscious for a few minutes.

Occupants of an automobile that passed directly afterwards paid no attention to him, it is claimed by with kept the tools in his locker so he would know where they were when he wanted to use them or to supply ennesses, but a woman who saw the acgines.

The court found there was not sufficident from a nearby house gave the alarm. The injured man was carried to the office of Dr. James L. Gardner, cient e idence to convict, and Allen was found not guilty and discharged to the office of Dr. James L. Gardner, who afterwards took Mr. Myers home in his car. Dr. Gardner found that Mr. Myers had suffered severely from shock; that his right elbow was severely injured, probably fractured, although this could not be determined without the use of an X-ray; that his left foot was injured and badly sprained and that there was a cut in the

To be Buried in Putnam The body of Rev. Charles H. Hickok day (Saturday) for burial in Grove engagement was in support of Mar-street cemetery. The deceased was formerly a pastor in the town of ed and that there was a cut in the head, though there was no evidence of a fracture of the skull. County Commissioners E. H. Hall of North Windham, L. E. Smith of this city and F. O. Davis of Pomfret met in the offices of the clerk of the su-Mr. Myers has beer in the employ of the local company for a number of years and is an experienced and careperior court here Friday afternoon for the purpose of issuing licenses that have been granted by them since the first of the month. The commissioners on Thursday granted six druggists' licenses in the town of Plainfield, which Miss Maud Houck and Pupils Injured includes Moosup, Central Village, and three licenses in the town of Sterling, Miss Maud Houck, teacher in the this completing their work along that line for the year,

Issued Licenses

Wauregan school, and pupils attending there were cut by flying glass Friday afternoon when the force of the gale Changes in Assignments

Changes in Assignments Changes in assignments of cases to be tried in the superior court were made by Judge Reed Friday. Frank
St. Martin vs. the N. Y., N. H. & H.
R. R. company is specially assigned for trial Wednesday of next week, this to be followed by the Barren vs. Windham county, et al. For Thursday next the assignments are Latham and Crane
va. Raymond J. Jodoin, second case Thursday to be that of Lewis White vs. P. K. Pederson, et al.

Matters Talked About afternoon when the lorce of the gale blew in the transom over the south outside doors of the building. Fortu-nately, no one was standing close enough to be seriously injured by the rain of glass. The high wind caused other damage to the building. But They Are a Team in the Inter-

The Belgians are sweeping everything before them, not along the Ysar, but along the Quinebaug, or that part of it in the vicinity of Killingly High school. These particular Belgians are a team in the inter-school basketball league. To date they have won all their games, a total of four, and therefore have a percentage of 1,000, which is better than any of the other allies can show. The Greeks and Turks, old enemies, are two teams that are tied with two games won and an equal number lost, percentage 500. Falling to live up to the reputation of the conquerors whose name they bear, the Romans have managed to lose all of the four games they have taken part in though they have tried hard to win.

The following players have been selected to make up the so-called varsity squad: Bartlett, Buffington, Ennis, Gallup, Gilbert, Gove, Hughes, C. Jette, Killian, Peplar, Reddy, Williams, Wood. They will commence regular practice next Tuesday. They will furnish the selections for the team provided they do not break training rules, fall into irregularities or become ineligible on account of study require-Matters Talked About State Policeman William E. Jackson was in Putnam Friday.

John A. Morgan of Meriden was a visitor with friends in Putnam Friday.

Charles Myers of Danielson, injured by a fall from a pole at Central Village Friday afternoon, was brought to the hospital here.

Putnam people who want to see the Putnam people who want to see the Tale-Harvard game continue to damor for tickets, but without success.

Officers from a Massachusetts town were here Priday investigating a case of special interest. Low water has forced some of the mills in this vicinity to run on short mills in this vicinity to fun on enert time this week.

Attorney knox of Hartford, formerly of this city, is acting as stenographer in the superior court here.

Children who have been ill with scarlet fever at the county home are The Smith street school, which has ments. The first game will probably be played here with Plainfield High Thanksgiving night.

HE MOHICAN COMPANY Compound

Cooking 15. 0

For Shortening or Frying

BUT THE POINT IS RIGHT HERE!

It Is Impossible For You To Buy Better Food. No One Can Sell It at a Lower Price. We Buy and Sell for Cash. How Can You Beat It? We Are Bound To Save You Money If You Grasp the Opportunity.

Fores and LAMB Ib. 10c Fresh "Little Pig" | Pound SHOULDERS Sugar and

SHOULDERS FINE SALT PORK LEGS LOINS VEAL

Smoked

after she came to him and asked him to give her the policy. Later she ap-peared at his office and told hhim she Eastern Cut Pound PORK LOINS, Prime Rib ROAST BEEF.

> Lean POT ROAST LAMB CHOPS, Ib., 122c

1 lb. LIVER ... for 15c

Round, Sirloin,

Very Fine Fresh BUTTER - 3 lbs. 97c

PROCESS BUTTER OLEOMARGARINE PURE LARD

Imported SWISS CHEESE, Ib. . . 37c PEANUT BUTTER Fine, Large, Brown EGGS, dozen. . 28c-30c-32c

Mealy POTATOES Fine - peck 18c

YELLOW ONIONS 4 quarts 10c FINE HEAD LETTUCE head 8c CRISP CELERY, bunch 10c | SWEET ORANGES New LAYER FIGS, lb. 14c

FANCY LEMONS GRAPE FRUIT dozen18c

Confectioners' SUGAR - - 3 lbs. 23c Frosting

PREPARED BUCKWHEAT, pkg...13c PURE SPICES 2 packages15c Royal-Cleveland BAKING POWDER, lb 32c PURE EXTRACTS 2 ounce bottle......15c

EVAPORATED MILK, 3 cans......25c PORK and BEANS pkg. Tea.... 1/4 lb. Cocoanut Raking 190 TOILET PAPER

Made Fresh Daily by Expert Workmen at This Store

LARGE CUP CAKES dozen10c German COFFEE CAKES each 8c-10c

LAYER CAKES OUR BEST BREAD

HOT BAKED BEANS HOT BROWN BREAD

COLCHESTER

Sunday at the Colchester Baptist church, Rev. B. D. Remington, pastor, at the morning worship, 10:45, the subject will be, The Church, the Family of God. Sunday school, 12:10; Y. P.

OBITUARY.

Eben Y. Backus. E. Y. Backus, 62, long identified with E, Y. Backus, 62, long identified with the stage both as an actor and stage director, died Thursday at his home in Westport, Conn. Mr. Backus, who was born in Danielson, made his debut in the Boston theatre in the late '79s. He went to New York and joined the old Empire Theatre Stock company, and during the many years of its existence was its stage manager and also istence was its stage manager and also appeared in its productions. Mr. Backus married Lillian Thurgate, an who died at Wakefield, Mass., will be acriess, who appeared generally in the brought to Putnam from that place to-same companies with him. His last

Ernest R. Allen Not Guilty of Larceny
In the city court Friday morning
Ernest R. Allen, night hestler at the New Haven road's roundhouse in this Friday.

been closed, is to re-open Monday morning.

Miss Mary A. Raymond of Fall River name in New York. He is survived by his widow. The body was brought to Danlelson Friday for burial.

Send It to Furnoscan Political in the forces of the jewelry company of that name in New York. He is survived by his widow. The body was brought to Danlelson Friday for burial.

PREDICTS INTERNATIONAL CLEARING HOUSE. John J. Arnold in Address Before Con-

today before the third annual conven-tion of the Investment Bankers' assuciation of America. out that inevitably there must be a hope that you will use your official financial readjustment following the position to transmit for us this plea choatle conditions the war is pro- for peace." ducing. Such a clearing house seemed logical, as an institution of that sort would eliminate the cost and waste of telegraphy.

PLEADING FOR PEACE. Send It to European Belligerents.

New York, Nov. 13.—Thirty Indians, headed by Chief White-Man-Runs, called at the office of Mayor Mitchel Jehn J. Arnold in Address Before Convention of Investment Bankers.

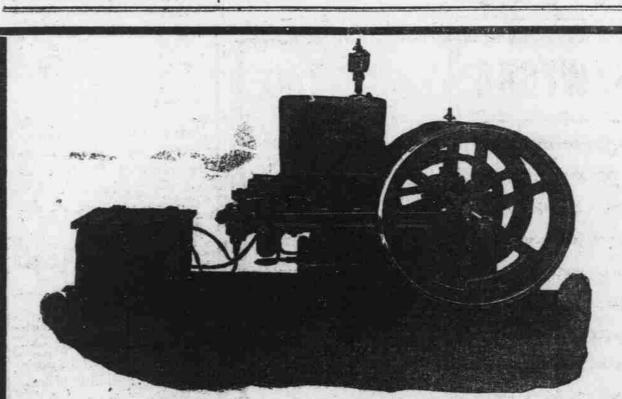

Philadelphia, Nov. I3.—An international clearing house which will adjust the credit and debit balances of all the nations of the world is certain to be established as a result of the present European war, sald John J. Arnord, a Chicago banker, in an address here today hefore the third annual conventional conventions. tion continued. "It may be a waste of words, and our desire may be drowned before it reaches its destina-Mr. Arnold, whose topic was Inter-national Trade and Finance, pointed thoughts known; and we sincerely

The petition was signed by Pablo Abeita as chief of the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico. The Indians are in moving great quantities of gold back-ward and forward to settle the bai-ances between the nations.

this city to attend an exposition.

Mr. Rockleigh—I bought this Mr. Rockleigh-I bought this pic-

Much of our war news from Europe is flashed across the seas by wireless Expert—No. I rather think it is telegraphy. Expert-No. I rather think it is a repetition.—Boston Transcript.

DON'T TAKE CHANCES Buy the Engine That Gives the Power FOR SALE BY

T. H. ELDREDGE, 95 Water Street